All Saskatoon Public Schools to reopen Tuesday, November 26

For immediate release: November 25, 2024 – 3:30 p.m.

All Saskatoon Public Schools will be open tomorrow—Tuesday, November 26. The schools were closed yesterday (November 25) with the safety of our students, staff, and families in mind, and to help keep vehicles off the streets in support of the citywide snow clearing effort.

Please note that the city’s road conditions are still impacting traffic movement across the city. Please take extra care and allow for extra time when travelling. We also ask that all drivers exercise caution at school zones this week, as the presence of large snowbanks can make it difficult to see students crossing at crosswalks and intersections.
